THE SENIOR CLASS

As we near the end of our school year the senior class of 1948, amid memories of dramatic successes, athletic honors, and scholastic achievements, pauses to summarize the innumerable events of the final year of our high school career.

Under the able guidance of our class officers: Fred Bennett, President; Donald McCoy, vice-president; Louella Perdew, secretary; and Richard Ayers, treasurer, we have reached the peak of our expectations. However, this was made possible only through the cooperation of Mrs. Nellie Hilton, social adviser; Mr. Carl Ritchie, business adviser, and Mr. Leon Klompus, and Mr. James Engle, Sabre advisers.

The members of the class have proven their intellectual ability. Individual honors were bestowed on Donald McCoy for his winning of the "I Speak for Democracy" contest and Betty Barnett for carrying away first prize in writing the winning essay for the National Guard.

Liquidating the prophecy that brawn and brains do not mix, members of our class helped to capture the City Championship in football and the WMI League title and City Championship in basketball.

The theatrical stage was not unknown to us. In the annual tournament we placed first for two consecutive years with members of both winning casts receiving the best actors crown. On April 9 the presentation of "Life of the Party," under the skillful directing of Miss Gerardine Pritchard, was acclaimed a hilarious success by a capacity audience.

Early in the fall, plans were formulated for the Senior Prom and on June 5 the committee's efforts materialized into what proved to be one of the outstanding activities of the year.

The curtain rose and fell for the last time on us as seniors on June 10. We have taken our final curtain call and now proudly go forth to put into actions our class motto, "In ourselves, our future lies."

The Junior Class

The members of the junior class of 1948, under the guidance of Wonn Reynolds, president; George Stevenson, vice-president; Dorothy Triplett, secretary; Eugene Mason, treasurer; and Miss Hamilton, adviser; have shown promise of being able leaders as the seniors of 1949.

One of the most exciting days in the life of the juniors was when the class rings arrived. On this day, most of the students really began to feel the responsibility that was theirs.

As in previous years, the junior class participated in the Annual Play Tournament. Our play, "My Late Espoused Saint," although not the winning one, was very well presented and Ann Linn took top laurels, giving one of the three best performances.

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was held on April 16, with Jimmy Andrew's orchestra playing dreamy dance tunes. The music, decorations, refreshments, and the lovely evening gowns were all perfect.

Rounding out a full schedule on May 27, we gave the seniors some pleasant memories by presenting them with a Farewell Assembly.

At the close of the year, we, the Juniors of '48 look forward to that position which will be ours as leaders in scholastic activities next year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

Sophomore Class

Last year, as freshmen, the sophomores elected Roger Craze, president; Lois Davis, vice-president; Frances Kennel, secretary; and Norma Robosson, treasurer. The purpose of this election was to teach students how to vote and how to select the candidates that are best suited for the positions. After being formally organized, the class was inactive, preparing for the time when they would become leaders in school activities.

They are looking forward to the day when, as juniors, they will order their class rings, and really don the cloak of responsibility for their school.

We, the seniors of 1948, extend to you, the seniors of 1950, best wishes for your future years at Fort Hill.

THE MIMEOGRAPH CREW

The Mimeograph Crew ranks high among the most important service organizations at Fort Hill. The Crew's many important duties range from the printing of the absentee list, which is mimeographed and distributed to all teachers each morning, to mimeographing tests and bulletins.

This year the Crew has taken on a new job. They are mimeographing questionnaires and other records and papers for the newly incorporated Guidance Department.

Only competent commercial students who have reached their junior year are eligible to work with the group. The student must also maintain a high scholastic rating. Each Crew member gives up one study period a day in order to work. There are no officers in the club.

For the past year, Mr. Robert Price has been serving as faculty adviser to the group.

To this deserving and important club, every Fort Hillian owes his sincere thanks.

JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y has endeavored during the past year to plan activities that would better outfit the members for their future years at Fort Hill.

The club participated in group church attendance to better understand and interpret religion. They helped the Tri-Hi-Y collect food for the annual food drive at Thanksgiving, and they also contributed to the Community Chest, The Red Cross and World Service. The girls also extended personal service and aid to the deserving and needy children at Christmas.

To learn to better adapt themselves, the Junior Tri-Hi-Y Members met together in theater, splash, skating parties, and other social gatherings.

Their code is:

To build a better world
Ready, I must be
In the place where life doth find me
Holding fast—yet pushing on
Into glorious adventure
You—and I—and God.

This is the standard to which the club has adhered during the year.

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y began an active program early in October with candlelight service at a formal initiation.

The club has worked diligently with Jane Dickerhoff as president; Melva Burke as vice-president; and Patty Close as chaplain. They have been ably supervised by Miss Hudson and Mrs. Hughes.

GIRLS' TRI-HI-Y

As the 1947-48 school year draws to a close, the Girls' Tri-Hi-Y looks back with pleasant memories of a successful year. Proudly they held the title of a service organization, and, by collecting food for Thanksgiving baskets, making scrapbooks for the sick, entertaining the needy children, they strived "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, higher standards of Christian character."

Their season of activities began in the latter part of September, when twenty new candidates, who had met the scholastic requirements and the approval of the members, formed a circle around a campfire at the Constitution Park and were formally initiated into the club.

Dances, hikes, trips to other Tri-Hi-Y clubs, Christmas caroling, sleigh rides, and sponsoring a basketball team are just a few samples of the variety of activities on their social program.

Under the guidance of the Y. M. C. A., the advisers, Mrs. Carolyn Dunlap, and Miss Jeanne Bowersox, and the officers: president, Doris Jean Poorbaugh; vice-president, Pat Tasker; secretary, Anna Lee Park; treasurer, Janet Matlick; chaplain, Joann Kilroy, the year ends with deeds of service and fun aplenty inscribed upon the records of the club.

BOYS' HI-Y

The Fort Hill Boys' Hi-Y carried out many useful projects during the school year. Besides providing moral and scholastic support, the club served in many ways to better and help the rest of school. The first project carried out was the printing and distribution of lineups for all home football games. On Thanksgiving Day twelve-page programs were printed and sold by the members of the club.

Representatives of the club attended the Older Boys' Conference at Dover, Delaware, on December 5, 6, and 7. On March 20, delegates from the club attended a pre-legislative session at College Park, Maryland, and on April 22, 23, and 24 they traveled to Annapolis to participate in a Youth in Government program.

One of the highlights of the year's activities was the Hi-Y - Faculty game in which the Hi-Y was defeated. This game is an annual feature of the Hi-Y and is intended to create a feeling of good-fellowship between the faculty and student body. The proceeds of the game went to the athletic department to buy a moving picture camera.

The club's officers were Don Sensabaugh, president; Ray Stevenson, vice-president; Glen Burke, treasurer; Norman Evans, secretary; and Jim Jones, chaplain.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

One of the highest honors given by this school is that of being selected for membership in the National Honor Society. Not only high scholastic standing is needed for membership in this organization, but also qualities of leadership, good character, and service to Fort Hill. Anyone obtaining this high position may feel justly proud of himself.

Each year five juniors and an unlimited number of seniors are chosen. The juniors are automatically in the society for two years.

The National Honor Society as a group does not participate in school affairs. But the individual members this year, as in every other year, will do all in their power to make Fort Hill "a stronger and nobler school."

SENTINEL EDITORS

The Sentinel, Fort Hill's bi-weekly newspaper, has two main objectives. They are to provide the staff members with introductive training and experience in the field of journalism and to bring to the student body, news and incidents of interest.

Numerous improvements were made in the make-up of the paper this year, including the rearrangement of the feature page, and the addition of various new feature columns.

In spite of the many difficulties confronting the staff, they have maintained a high standard of excellence in the editions of the paper.

This year, representatives of the staff and Miss Calemene attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention in New York City where the Sentinel was awarded a first place rating in the 1500 to 2000 student-body class.

STUDENT COUNCIL

"We shall never bring disgrace to our school by any act of dishonesty or cowardice. We will fight for the ideals and cherish the things of our school, both singly and together. We shall respect and obey the school's laws. We will strive unceasingly to arouse the student's sense of scholastic duty. Thus in all these ways we will transmit our school to others—greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

The Student Council consists of two Houses, the Senate and the House of Representatives. The Senate is composed of eight officers—four seniors and four juniors. The four seniors fill the offices of President, Secretary of Social Affairs, Secretary of Traffic, and Secretary of Industry. The juniors fill the offices of Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Public Relations Officer.

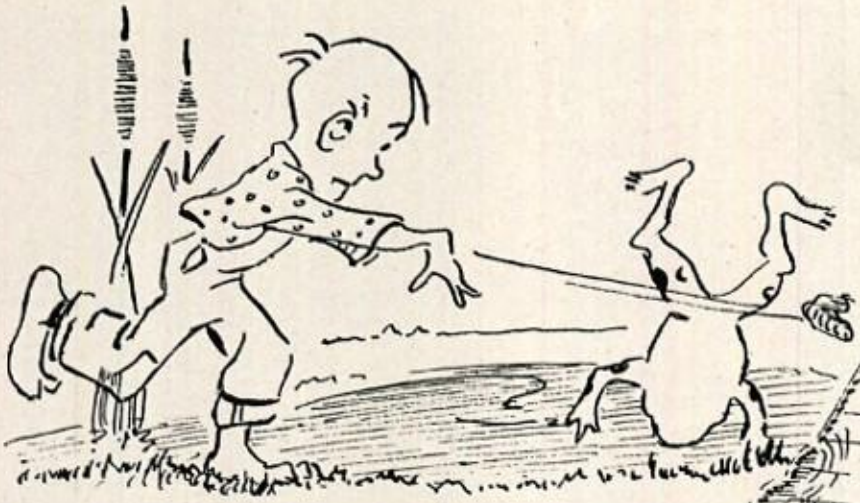

The House of Representatives consists of a member of each homeroom, elected at the beginning of the school year. Each member is expected to attend the meetings each week, present problems suggested by the homerooms and report the council meeting back to the homerooms.

Advisers of the Student Council are Mr. Robert Morris, Miss Lillian Myers, Miss Alverda Ford, and Mrs. Pauline Eyler.

Coach Hahn

Coach William P. Hahn came to Fort Hill High School to coach football in 1942. He had a good season that year losing only to Allegany.

After three years in the Navy, Coach Hahn returned to Fort Hill in 1946 to become football and track coach. In 1946 his football squad lost only to Hagerstown, and his track team won the Maryland State Championship. In 1947, Coach Hahn's squad won nine out of ten games. Losing the opener to a strong Washington-Lee team, they finished the season by copping the City Championship.

Don Sensabaugh

Don Sensabaugh, though plagued by injuries, has been a valuable player at the fullback post, being active in running and in passing.

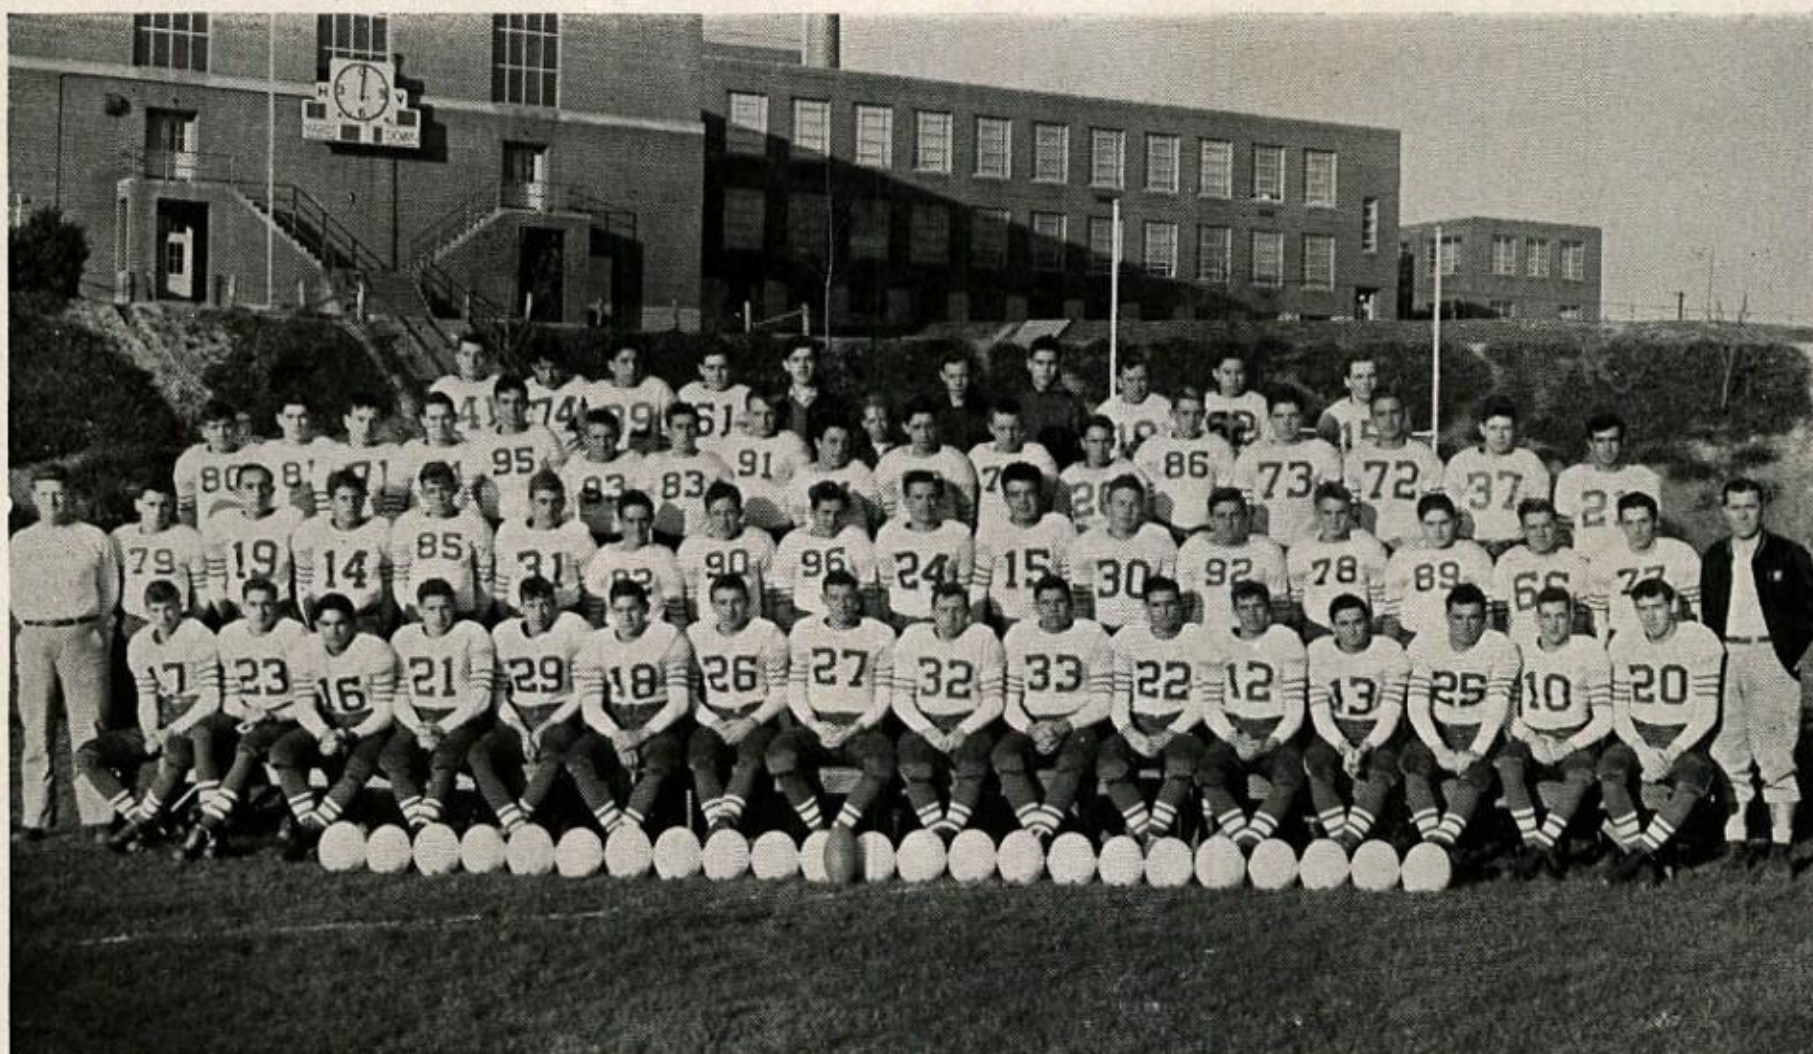

Don has played first-string ball for three years. He was not able to play in the Thanksgiving Day Game this year because of a broken collar bone received in the Hagerstown game.

James Manges

Serving with Don Sensabaugh as co-captain, "Jimmy," at right half was a spark to the whole team. Noted for his bruising type of play, "Jimmy" was a good runner and passer as well as kicking the extra points for the Sentinels. It was in this capacity that "Jimmy" really shined. By placing 32 extra points over the crossbars, he broke the city record for extra points which was held by Don Snyder of Allegany. Snyder had kicked 29 extra points.

Coach Cavanaugh

Coach John J. Cavanaugh started coaching at Pennsylvania Avenue in 1928, and in 1936 when Fort Hill was built, continued coaching here.

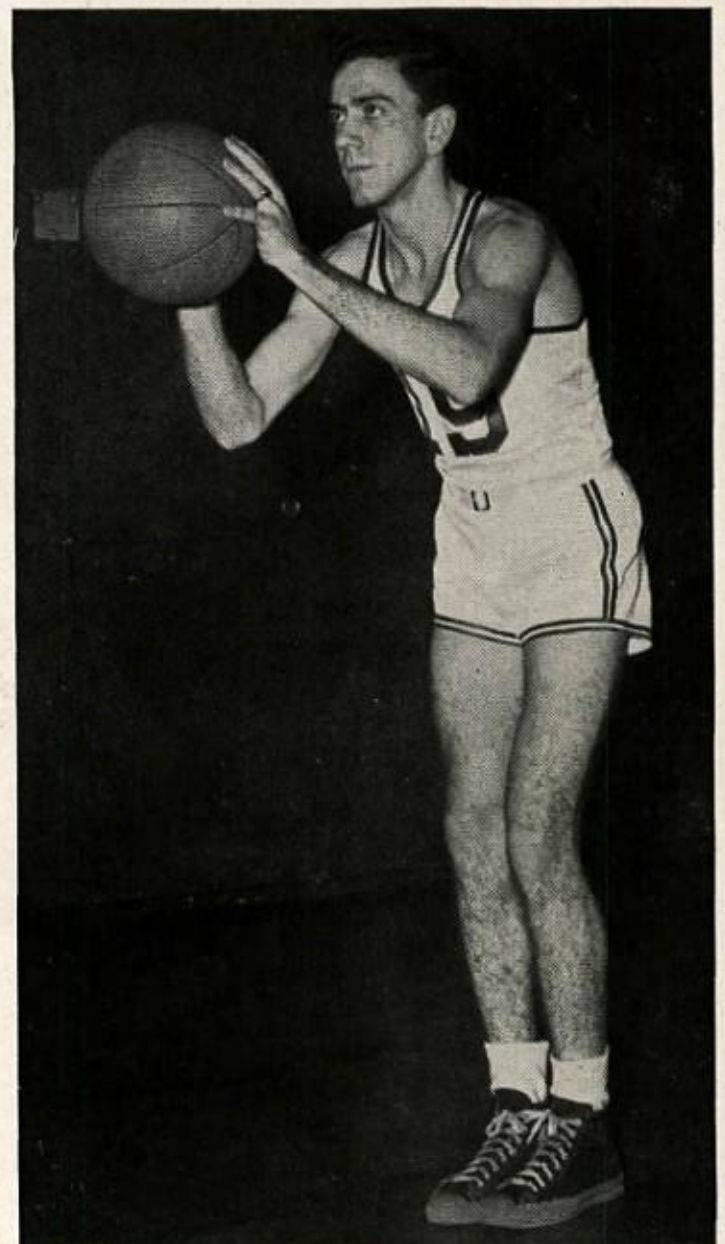

He has coached practically all sports but is connected mainly with baseball and basketball. His basketball team this year had one of the most impressive records ever compiled by a Fort Hill team, winning the City and W. M. I. League titles, the Class A title of the Western Shore, and the State Championship.

His many fine championship teams stand as a reminder and tribute to Fort Hill's "Mr. Basketball."

Girls' Basketball Team

For the first time in many years, a girl's basketball league was formed in Cumberland. In this league Fort Hill has set a record of which we can be justly proud.

Under the able coaching of Mrs. Henrietta Snyder, our team has gained distinction for Fort Hill by winning four championships. They won the City, WMI League, Class A, and District I championships. These titles were won through hard work and practice on the part of each individual on this team.

Athletic organizations, such as this, serve in building strong, healthy minds and bodies, and teach participants the meaning of good sportsmanship.

Serving as co-captains were Oleta Conway and Clara Hudson. June Clark acted as manager.

We, of the SABRE, extend to the basketball team a vote of thanks for the recognition you have brought to our school.

FORT HILL PLAYERS

The Fort Hill Players, under the direction of Miss Helen Smith, reached a new goal in dramatic achievement during the year. During the regular workshop periods, courses on drama in all its phases were conducted.

The success of the Players and their new director was seen in the annual three-act play, "Dear Ruth," which was presented in December. The one-act play tournament and the judging of the best actor was a spotlight event on the dramatic calendar. The May Day festivities honoring the queen and her court were carried through with a flourish of beauty. The club also assisted in many of the assembly programs throughout the year.

The officers for 1947-48 were Doris Jean Poorbaugh, president; Marybelle Bageant, vice-president; Jean Lee Curl, secretary; Anna Lee Park, treasurer; and Jean Allen, publicity manager.

This year, under the able direction of Miss Annetta Yates, the A Cappella Choir and Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs have risen to new heights of achievement in the field of music. Well-known in Cumberland, the A Cappella Choir is one of the best choral groups in this section.

Taking an active part in community programs, the choir presented many performances for churches and social groups throughout the city, and, as usual, they sang Christmas carols at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad station. Highlighting a full year of musical entertainment, they took part in the annual county music festival held here at Fort Hill.

In addition to providing pleasant experiences for all who heard them, the members broadened their own knowledge of music.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The lights grew dim as the curtains opened on April 9 to reveal the senior class play "Life of the Party." The play was a huge success and it can be marked down as another accomplishment for this year's senior class.

The plot of the play was an intricate pattern of seven stories interwoven into a comedy of an average American family.

The cast played their parts well and can be complimented on their fine acting ability. To each member we extend our thanks for a memorable evening of entertainment.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

PLAY TOURNAMENT

The long awaited, annual sophomore-junior-senior play tournament was held on February 19. This tournament is sponsored by the Fort Hill Players. The plays must be of one-act and are cast and directed by student directors. This year all three casts gave excellent performances with first place being awarded to the seniors.

The sophomore play, "Nobody Sleeps," was a comedy directed by Joanna Thrasher. In the cast were Robbie Wilson, Norma Robosson, Lois Davis, Mary Moulton and Bill Evans. Their performances prove that they are all very talented.

The junior cast presented "My Late Espoused Saint." Taking part in this comedy were Carl Thompson, Jack Cessna, Barbara Carder, and Ann Linn, who was chosen as one of the top three performers. Anna Lee Park directed the well-acted play.

The winning play, presented by the seniors, was "Which Is the Way to Boston?" Taking part were Jean Curl, Colleen Burke, Don McCoy and Fred Bennett. Colleen and Don were the other two selected as giving the best performances. This play was ably directed by Doris Jean Poorbaugh.

The casts and directors of all three plays deserve the very highest praise for the fine entertainment they presented.

Jimmy Manges

The SABRE is proud to present James Manges to the student body, their overwhelming choice as the outstanding senior boy. Jim truly deserves this honor, being as well-known to the younger students as to his fellow classmates. In his later schools years, he has taken an active part in football, basketball, and baseball. In these sports, Jim has proven to be a capable and dependable person. His athletic talent has gained him many honors during his school life, placing his name among the well-known in Fort Hill's Hall of Fame.

The SABRE wishes the best of luck to Jim, a good athlete and a wonderful fellow.

Colleen Burke

The SABRE presents Colleen Burke as the outstanding senior girl of the class of '48. Colleen merits this title because of the active interest she has taken in all school activities. She has distinguished herself in a variety of activities, making great use of her dramatic ability and glowing personality to excel in the field of dramatics. Her natural beauty plus her pleasing disposition has been sufficient to warrant her being chosen as May Queen Attendant for four successive years. Colleen is also known to all as the peppy cheerleader who lends excitement to athletic contests.

To Colleen, the SABRE extends best wishes for many triumphs in her future years as an alumnus of Fort Hill, class of '48.

Row 2: J. Jones, Chaplain; R. Stevenson, vice-president; D. Sensabaugh, president; G. Burke, treasurer; N. Evans, secretary.

HI-Y OFFICERS

Much of the success of the Boys and Girls Hi-Y organization depends upon the ability, leadership, and initiative of their officers. It is the duty of each officer to carry out his tasks to the utmost. The officers this year have done a truly grand job, and the members of the clubs can be proud of the students they have selected to these offices.

DON McCOY

A person well-known here on the Hilltop for his intellect, personality, acting ability, and humor, is Don McCoy. His activities all through school have been well-rounded and numerous. Don, as a senior, captured well-deserved laurels for himself and the school when he placed first in the city as winner of the "I Speak for Democracy" contest. He also brought honor to himself when he tied with two others for first place in the annual Senior High Play Tournament. Another proof of his acting ability was that of being chosen to portray one of the leads in the Senior Class Play. Don's name will long be remembered among the great in Fort Hill's Hall of Fame.

HER MAJESTY QUEEN OF THE MAY

June Clark

Beauty, intelligence, interest in her fellow students, and belief in fair play are just a few of the characteristics of our May Queen, June Clark. Well-liked by all, June has taken a deep interest and pride in all her school work. This pert brunette with a pleasing personality and a warm smile has taken an active part in school life.

During her first years at Fort Hill, she was a member of the Library Club and Girls' League. In her junior year, she took part in the Junior Farewell Assembly. This year June was a typist for the SENTINEL and for the Commercial Department. Always taking an active interest in sports, she was manager of the girl's championship basketball team. Disproving the theory that brains and beauty do not mix, June was awarded one of the highest honors given by this school when she was voted into the National Honor Society.

On a very lovely spring day, amid an impressive array of beauty, June was crowned Queen of the May by Birdie Lou Kirk, last year's Queen. A delightful program was presented in honor of Queen June and her court.

We, of the SABRE, take this opportunity to extend to June Clark, May Queen of 1948, success in future years.

Dean Holding - Manges Kicks

Jim Manges

Jim Manges, one of Fort Hill's most outstanding athletes, set a new city record when he kicked 32 extra points during the Football Season. Jimmie really deserved the title, "The Toe," with which he was labeled. His unerring aim was a morale booster to the entire team.

However, Jim did not accept all credit for his success, and praised Milford Dean, the ball-holder, and the rest of the Sentinel team for their support.

The people of Cumberland showed their appreciation of Jim's sportsmanship and ability by observing "Jimmie Manges Night" at a local theater. Jim was honored by the presentation of a gold trophy while the remainder of the squad was in the audience.

Jim was All-City for two years in football and was also very active in basketball and baseball.

These four students are among those who have brought special acclaim to Fort Hill through their literary efforts.

Betty Barnett and James Stemple took first and second prizes, respectively, in the National Guard Essay Contest and Betty Shreve and Louise Lathrum took honors in the National Quiz-Kids Contest. All four of these students justly deserve the honor which they have brought to themselves and their school.

In connection with the annual one-act play tournament Colleen Burke, Ann Linn, and Don McCoy were chosen as having given the best performance.

All three gave excellent performances and merited the title of "Best Actor of 1948."

Sentinel

Jimmie Deetz, Editor-in-Chief; Miss Calamine, Adviser; Jean Allen, Associate Editor.

We extend congratulations to the Sentinel editors, Jean Allen and Jimmy Deetz, under whose guidance the staff was able to make prompt and complete coverage of news and feature events. Jean and Jimmy held the positions of co-feature and news editors, respectively, last year thereby proving their working and journalistic abilities.

Sabre

Mr. Klompus, Mr. Engle, Sarah Keller, and Norman Evans have worked faithfully to produce a yearbook that would be an accurate record of the school year. This took much time and effort on the part of all of them. Norman especially deserves much credit and recognition for the great piece of work he has done. He gave much of his time in the attempt to make this year's SABRE one that will be of interest to everyone.

We, the senior class, thank you of the SABRE staff for recording many pleasant memories for us to recall in later years.

Norman Evans, Editor-in-Chief; Mr. Leon Klompus, Adviser; Sarah Keller, Associate Editor.

High School Graduates of '48

Here's Your Future

Graduation need not mean the end of your education. Those of you who choose the U. S. Army or U. S. Air Force for a career may obtain the equivalent of two years of college credit by signing up for extension or correspondence courses in the United States Armed Forces Institute.

As for the graduate interested in a trade, he will find just what he is looking for in the more than 60 technical schools of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force.

What makes this academic and technical schooling so attractive—aside from the knowledge gained—is that it is absolutely free to anyone enlisting. While you continue your education, the government pays you a salary higher than many a civilian scale. It also provides a chance to visit and study in foreign countries, while all the time you are becoming eligible for retirement after 20 years.

Before you make your final choice of a career, it would pay you to look into the wonderful opportunities that are available in the U. S. Army or U. S. Air Force.
